

Mjejane River Lodge      Kruger National Park

Awaken Your Senses to the Pulse of Africa

Breathtaking...

Mjejane River Lodge is set in the Southern Kruger region east of the Malelane area. This magnificent 3500ha Mjejane Game Reserve has been absorbed into the Kruger National Park and enjoys direct access to the Kruger over a private causeway. With over 14 km of Crocodile river frontage Mjejane enjoys abundant wildlife and offers an outstanding big five safari opportunity, allowing guests to experience the bush face-to-face, track animals, soak up the African sunshine, walk along dry riverbeds and experience the heart of Africa.

African Hospitality

The lodge is nestled on the banks of the Crocodile River under the ancient indigenous trees. Boasting ten executive rooms, each of which offers a spacious air-conditioned haven of well appointed comfort and private verandah. The rim flow pool creates the central feature with expansive views of the river and surrounding bush. A welcoming lounge and intimate dining room are the hub of hospitality at Mjejane River Lodge and offer an inviting respite from the hot African sun. Evenings in our outdoor dining Boma are a spectacular way to enjoy our African cuisine.

Pulsating African Hospitality

Guests are able to enjoy game drives and walks through the lush reserve or may elect to enjoy a myriad of activities which include horse riding, mountain biking or fishing from a pontoon amongst the resident hippo and crocodiles! Nearby attractions include the beaches of Mozambique, the Kingdom of Swaziland, the scenic Panorama route, fabulous golf courses, agricultural tours, elephant-back wildlife encounters and visits to the Jane Goodall chimpanzee sanctuary.
