COVID-19 POLICY

In the hopes of providing a fair resolution to all parties involved we are dealing with every request on a case by case basis. As difficult a time it is for all in the travel and hospitality industry we appreciate the patience as we deal with your bookings. In a volatile circumstance we reserve the right to change the below policy at any point, without any notice. Please do not hesitate to contact us directly should you have any further questions or queries which require our attention.

2022 bookings :

- Clients can amend their 2022 booking to any dates in 2023 free of charge, note that the rate increases will apply.
- If clients wish to amend their booking to dates later in 2022, there will be no amendment fee.
- Bookings cancelled due to Covid-19 related travel restrictions will not incur a cancellation fee, all other cancellations will follow our standard cancellation policy.
- Deferred bookings from 2022 without confirmed dates will be moved to the same date in 2022 unless otherwise specified.

2023 bookings :

- We can hold all new bookings on a provisional basis until 90 days prior to travel.
- Should we get a confirmed booking for a period where you have guests on a provisional basis, we will advise you to ask the guest to confirm or release their booking
- Deposits are not required.
- Confirmation required 30 days prior to arrival, with a voucher or booking reference number.
- Payment due 30 days prior to date of arrival. Unless special payment terms have been negotiated.
- Should guests test positive in transit and are unable to travel, no cancellation fees will apply, however a 10% administration fee of the full amount due will be charged.
- Should borders close without prior notice, no cancellation fees will apply, however a 10% administration fee of the full amount due will be charged.

In any case of a guest cancellation due to positive testing of the virus we would require adequate doctors/medical reports.
